Your Excellency,
John Dramani Mahama,
The President of the Republic of Ghana,
Accra, Ghana.

Dear Mr. President,

CONGRATULATORY LETTER

On behalf of the Terabuuriyele Organization, we extend our warmest congratulations on your remarkable victory in the general elections held on December 7, 2024. This achievement represents a significant milestone in Ghana's democratic journey, and we are confident in the positive impact your leadership will bring to our beloved nation.

We commend your unwavering dedication to public service, which has deservedly earned you the trust and confidence of the Ghanaian people. Your vision for Ghana's prosperity and development aligns closely with the values and mission of our organization.

As a cultural group, we are confident in your ability to fulfil your promises and leave a legacy of excellence in the high office you now hold. We are optimistic that your tenure will usher in an era of peace, stability, and prosperity for all Ghanaians.

Please accept our heartfelt wishes for your continued health, happiness, and success. Additionally, we extend our best wishes to the people of Ghana as they embark on this new chapter of progress and development under your leadership.

With warm regards and the utmost respect,

Simon Apenure Ayariga

National Chairman
